

Outstanding 2011 Presentations for CSCTFL 2012

Congratulations to the following presenters whose CSCTFL sessions or workshops were highly rated on the basis of participant evaluations and observations. Nine ALL STARS have been invited to return for an encore presentation at the 2012 conference.

Our heartfelt thanks are extended to everyone who contributed workshops and sessions at the 2011 conference in Indianapolis. It is the dedication and professionalism of the presenters that continue to make CSCTFL a quality event.

All nine ALL STARS have accepted our invitation to present again in Milwaukee.

ALL STAR (session): Challenge Tournament: ALL of Your Students Will Love to Play!

Presenter: Sarah Adams Schwartz, Ladue School District, St. Louis, MO

ALL STAR (session): Generating Student Input through Humor, Tech, and Stories

Presenter: Mira Canion, Erie High School, Erie, CO

ALL STAR (session): Strategies for Staying in the Target Language

Presenters: Sharon B Rapp, World Languages Consultant, Conway, AR; Patricia H. Carlin, University of Central Arkansas, Conway, AR

ALL STAR (session): Does It Count?

Presenter: Laura L Terrill, Laura Terrill, Indianapolis, IN

ALL STAR (session): Poesías y canciones para los más pequeños

Presenter: Paulino Brener, paulinobrener.com, Minneapolis, MN

ALL STAR (session): Developing Integrated Units Levels 1 - 5/IB/AP

Presenter: Angelika Becker, Carmel High School, Carmel, IN

ALL STAR (session): Awesome Ideas for Teaching Culture in the Spanish Classroom

Presenters: Amy Haney, Kettering Fairmont High School, Kettering, OH; Kathleen Acosta, Carroll High School, Dayton, OH; Ashleigh Ten Eyck, Wright State University, Dayton, OH

ALL STAR (session): Teaching the Preterit and the Imperfect From Start to Finish

Presenters: Kathleen Acosta, Carroll High School, Dayton, OH; Amy Haney, Kettering Fairmont High School, Kettering, OH; Ashleigh Ten Eyck, Wright State University, Dayton, OH

ALL STAR (session): Using Music and Media to Teach Spanish

Presenters: Ashleigh Ten Eyck, Wright State University, Dayton, OH; Kathleen Acosta, Carroll High School, Dayton, OH; Amy Haney, Kettering Fairmont High School, Kettering, OH