

2016 PROPOSAL
CENTRAL STATES CONFERENCE ON THE TEACHING OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES
EXTENSION WORKSHOP PROGRAM
Columbus, OH
Thursday, March 10, 2016
8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Preparing Our Students for Success: Designing and Implementing Standards-based Thematic Instruction

Presenters: Karen Luond Fowdy, and Lisa Hendrickson, Independent World Language Consultants, Monroe, WI

Participant's Information

Name:

School:

Position and language(s) taught:

Address:

Telephone:

E-mail:

This information is my (please circle one) HOME or SCHOOL contact.

Have you been selected for participation in the EW by a state Foreign Language organization? If yes, by which one?

Have you been a participant in a CSCTFL CW/EW before? If yes, which year(s)?

Proposed Extension Workshop

1. What kind of format is envisioned for your Extension Workshops? For example, will the EW be part of an in-service day, a state conference, a methods class, a FL teachers' meeting, etc.?

2. From how wide an area, from which instructional levels, and from which language groups will participants come?

3. What level of experience do you have in the use of integrated proficiency based assessments in the classroom?

Please submit this proposal before January 15, 2016, to:

Julie Jezuit
Lincoln Middle School
700 W. Lincoln
Mt. Prospect, IL 60056
juliejezuit@hotmail.com

NOTE:

1. All participants must register for the 2016 Central States Conference on the Teaching of Foreign Languages. Please register at www.csctfl.org
2. Participants must also pay a fee of $95.00, in order to participate in the Extension Workshop. IF accepted as a participant, the $95.00 will be refunded with the additional $50 honorarium when the participant files a report of the workshop conducted in their locale.