

FLES SWAPSHOP BREAKFAST

Saturday, March 10, 2012

7:30 AM – 9:00 AM

Calling all teachers and supporters of Early Language Programs!

Come early and get invigorated for the day with your colleagues as K-8 World Language teachers and supporters gather to network and share ideas.

Included in the Swapshop Breakfast:

- Colleagues and guest speakers reporting on current happenings in the area of World Languages in our Central Region.
- Reports from state NNELL representatives and others representing K-8 World Language education.
- Advocacy information from ACTFL and NNELL in support of K-8 World Language programs in our Central States.
- Various activities/lesson plans and advocacy materials to take back to your classrooms, schools, and communities.
- Cool door prizes!

 All participants are asked to e-mail their favorite lesson plan, activity, or advocacy idea to share with other K-8 teachers/supporters in our Central States Region with the K-8 teacher's name and contact information at the top of the document. Please do NOT bring paper copies!

 E-mail submissions must be received by February 15, 2012, either pasted into an e-mail or in Microsoft Word Document format, to Nicci Saari, NNELL East Central Regional Representative, at
