

Friday Special Event Receptions

The Goethe-Institut Chicago and the AATG Chapter of Missouri invite all colleagues to a special performance by the Rap Artist Clueso
6:15 PM – 8:00 PM

Feeling too old for your students? Need some youthful credibility? The Goethe-Institut Chicago and the AATG Chapter of Missouri invite all colleagues to a special performance by the Rap Artist Clueso. Clueso's growing fan-base dates from his participation in Stefan Raab's Bundesvision Song Contest in 2005, where his song "kein Bock zu geh'n" attracted attention. Since the 2006 World Cup where Clueso opened for the Fantastischen Vier, this attention has come not just from Thuringians, but a wider German audience. According to his web page,

"Clueso hat es mit seiner Schusseligkeit geschafft, nie geschnappt zu werden, weder von seinen Lehrern, von Polizisten, noch von irgendeiner Art von System. Clueso aka der Inspektor machte sich . . . einen Namen, ob durchs Breaken in Jugendhäusern oder durch seine große Klappe, die ihm genauso oft zum Verhängnis wie zum Vorteil wurde."

Open to all CSC Conference Attendees.

AATF Reception
6:15 PM – 8:00 PM

This year's AATF reception at CSC will again feature opportunities for professional networking with officials from the national office of AATF. In addition, the regional consuls for Canada, France, and Belgium, as well as personnel from the Chicago Consulat de France, have been invited to attend the reception. Information about the upcoming AATF summer conventions at Baton Rouge, Louisiana (2007) and Liège, Belgium (2008) will be provided, and attendees of the Milwaukee congrès in 2006 will comment. A tombola drawing for classroom posters and maps of Belgium will be held near the conclusion of the evening. Venez nombreux; ambiance folâtre assurée.

Embassy of Spain Concert

The Education Office of the Embassy of Spain sponsors this delightful evening of music performed by the winners of the 9th Annual Competition in the Performance of Music from Spain and Latin America.
